

Project title : COTOGROS - Technical support to the feasibility of a wholesale market in Cotonou

Project place	Project cost	Role in the project	Technical and financial sponsors	Dates
Benin	14 400 €	Expert filières agricoles	RUNGIS-SEMMARIS, Ministère du cadre de vie et du développement durable du Bénin - MCVDD	January 2018 - March 2018

Project's goals and results

Main goals

Consolidate data on agricultural sectors that structure the agricultural ecosystem of Benin with the development of a synthesis report

Specific objectives

emmaris (RUNGIS) is assisting the Benin government to study the feasibility of creating a wholesale market in Cotonou to transfer these activities from the agglomeration to a site with adapted infrastructures

Beneficiaries

Large commercial supply center in Cotonou of more than 18 ha

Results

Summary note with graphics highlighting the main agro-food flows (import / export)

Activities

 A1.  Bibliographic review: description of the agro-food ecosystem of Benin A2.  Statistical analysis: importing customs data UNCOMTRADE, EUROSTAT, data analysis, graphing and supplementary research A3.  RDV outlets, remote interviews, identification of the main operators A4.  1 Cotonou field mission: surveys and observation of market operations, in particular Dantokpa