

Project title : ISARA - Annual training module since 2002 on "Economy and Agricultural and food exchanges: international issues"

Project place	Project cost	Role in the project	Technical and financial sponsors	Dates
France	5 000 €	Conception & coordination of the training module	ISARA-Lyon	May 2002 - June 2021

Project's goals and results

Main goals

In-depth knowledge of 4th year engineering students on:

- Global trade in agricultural and food products
- Strategies and the role of large firms at the international level
- The agricultural policies of the main countries or groups of countries and their consequences on international markets
- International negotiations and conflicts, modes of regulation at the world level (notably in the context of the WTO)

Specific objectives

Beneficiaries

Étudiants de 4e année

Results

R1. Design of a module for 5 weeks of training

R2. Speakers identification

R3. Coordination of external speakers, trainers, teachers

R4. Training Interventions

R5. Supervision of student work

Activities

A1. Interventions by experts Nitidæ - Rongead and external speakers (in French and English) on:

- World Market, WTO and agricultural policies
- Market risk coverage in agricultural products trade
- Public policies, the CAP and the WTO: stocktaking and prospects for agricultural holdings (application to the milk / meat sector)
- From Commodities Pool to Sovereign Wealth Funds: The Issue of Access to Natural Resources and Food
- Intellectual property and geographical indications in commercial exchanges
- The cotton crisis in Central Asia and trade policies
- Kosovo: the implementation of agricultural policies in a regional context of crisis and competition
- Algeria: staying out of the WTO to develop its agriculture?
- Social Responsibility of Organizations (RSO) in the international trade of agri-food products
- Major international retail groups
- EU / ACP agreements in the agricultural field
- Animation of the educational role play (editor: RONGEAD) on the rice sector
- ...

A2. Supervising groups of students for the preparation of presentations on the different themes.